DAY 31

Pray for Defence Anglican Chapel Congregations

A Prayer for Use in Time of Conflict:

O Lord God of infinite mercy, we ask you to look in compassion on our nation now involved in conflict. Pardon our offences, our pride and our arrogance, our self-sufficiency and our forgetfulness of you. Give wisdom to our elected and appointed leaders, skill and discernment to our officers, courage and endurance to our sailors, soldiers and airmen and women, especially those serving in and around the Middle East, and all who guard our shores. Look in mercy on those immediately exposed to danger, conflict, sickness, and death, and all prisoners of war. Be with the dying; give to them true repentance and complete trust in you; and in the day of judgement, good Lord, deliver them. Finally, we ask you to banish from our hearts the spirit that makes for war, to remove all causes and occasions of conflict; to direct us and our enemies to moderation; and to restore peace among the nations.
